

- RALPH · SMALL · HOUSE -

HABS NO GA-143

- MACON · GEORGIA -

HABS

GA.

II-MACO

5-

PHOTOGRAPHS
WRITTEN HISTORIC AND DESCRIPTIVE DATA
District of Georgia

Historic American Buildings Survey
Harold Bush-Brown, District Officer
Georgia School of Technology, Atlanta, Ga.

RALPH SMALL HOUSE

Macon, Bibb County, Georgia

Owner: Ralph Small.Date of Erection: 1847.Architect & Builder:

Present Condition: Good. Has bssn moved and turned around to face East on side street.

Number of Stories: Two.

Materials of Construction: Brick foundation. Wood floors. Exterior walls frame.

Other Existing Records: Article, "The Ralph Small House," in Southern Architect and Building News, November 1931, page 12, by Ward Dennis. In Domestic Architecture of the Early American Republic by Howard Major. Article by Mary Callaway Jones (Mrs. Frank F.), Macon Telegraph, Feb. 24, 1929.

Additional Data: True Greek Revival Doric Columns topped by a frieze of inverted laurel wreaths and parapet. Balcony over entrance door. The colonade has square end supports. Slightly sloping parapet with three carved acroteria. Doorway and outer snframe-ment poor and may have been later. Interior of little interest except that panels under windows were in two instances made to slide up past lower sash or double hung windows to allow passage through. According to article accompanied by measured drawing in Southern Architect, by Ward Dennis, Student of Georgia School of Technology, the columns are 7½ dia. high and the square antae are 9 dia. high.

Harold Bush-Brown
HAROLD BUSH-BROWN Dec 1, 1936
DISTRICT OFFICER-HABS